The specified period may be extended, but not more than by 5 (five) business days. For this, the Operator must send the personal data subject a reasoned notice indicating the reasons for the extension.

6. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

6.1. The Company as a personal data operator has the right to:

6.1.1. Independently determine the scope and list of measures necessary and sufficient to ensure compliance with the obligations stipulated by the Personal Data Law and the regulatory legal acts adopted in accordance with it, unless otherwise provided by the Personal Data Law or other federal laws.

6.1.2. Entrust the processing of personal data to another person with the consent of the personal data subject, unless otherwise provided by federal law, on the basis of a contract concluded with such a person. The agreement with the person processing personal data must define the list of personal data, the list of actions (operations) to be performed with the personal data, the purposes of their processing, the obligation of the processor to maintain the confidentiality of the personal data, as well as other mandatory terms in accordance with the Personal Data Law, including compliance with principles and rules of processing, reporting to the Operator, and notifying the Operator of any unauthorized access to personal data.

6.1.3. In the event that a personal data subject withdraws their consent to the processing of personal data, the Operator has the right to continue processing without consent if there are legal grounds for doing so as set forth in the Personal Data Law.

6.1.4. Provide personal data of subjects to third parties when required by applicable law (e.g., tax authorities, law enforcement agencies, etc.).

6.1.5. Defend their interests in court.

6.2. The Company, as a personal data operator, is obliged to:

6.2.1. Organize the processing of personal data in compliance with the requirements of the Personal Data Law.

6.2.2. Ensure that each personal data subject has access to documents and materials containing their personal data, unless otherwise provided by law.

6.2.3. Make necessary corrections, delete or block personal data in cases where the subject provides incomplete, outdated, inaccurate, or unlawfully obtained data, and notify the subject accordingly.

6.2.4. Respond to inquiries and requests from personal data subjects or their legal representatives in accordance with the requirements of the Personal Data Law.

6.2.5. Provide, upon request of the authorized body for the protection of personal data subjects' rights (Roskomnadzor), the necessary information within 10 working days from the date of receipt. This period may be extended by no more than 5 working days, with a reasoned notice explaining the extension. To do so, the Operator must submit a reasoned notice to Roskomnadzor stating the reasons for extending the deadline for providing the requested information;

6.2.6. Upon achievement of the purpose of personal data processing or in the event that such purpose is no longer necessary, to cease processing and destroy the personal data or ensure their destruction within a period not exceeding 30 (thirty) days from the date of achievement of the processing purpose, unless otherwise provided for by federal laws.

6.2.7. Comply with the requirements of the legislation of the Russian Federation.

6.3. The personal data subject has the right to:

6.3.1. Request the clarification of their personal data, or the blocking or destruction of their personal data if it is incomplete, outdated, inaccurate, unlawfully obtained, or not necessary for the stated purpose of processing, and take legal measures to protect their rights.

6.3.2. Obtain information about the processing periods of their personal data, including the duration of storage.

6.3.3. Request that all persons who previously received incorrect or incomplete personal data be informed of any changes, corrections, or additions made.

6.3.4. File complaints to the authorized body for the protection of personal data subjects' rights or challenge unlawful actions or inaction regarding their personal data in court.

6.3.5. Exercise other rights provided for by the legislation of the Russian Federation.

6.4. The personal data subject is obliged to:

6.4.1. Provide accurate personal data necessary to achieve the processing purposes and confirm their accuracy by presenting original documents.

6.4.2. Notify the Company of any changes to personal data necessary to achieve processing purposes and confirm the updates with supporting documents.

6.4.3. Comply with the requirements of the legislation of the Russian Federation.

6.5. Control over compliance with this Policy is carried out by the authorized person responsible for organizing the processing of personal data in the Company.

7. PROCEDURE AND CONDITIONS FOR PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING

7.1. Personal data is processed by the Operator in accordance with the legislation of the Russian Federation.

7.2. The Operator obtains personal data directly from the personal data subject, their representative, or from a person who has assigned the Operator to process personal data, unless otherwise stipulated by Russian law.

7.3. The processing of personal data is carried out with the consent of personal data subjects to the processing of their personal data, and without such consent in cases stipulated by the legislation of the Russian Federation.

7.4. In cases stipulated by the legislation of the Russian Federation, the processing of personal data may continue even after the subject has withdrawn their consent.

7.5. Access to personal data is granted to the Operator's employees who need personal data in connection with the performance of their official duties.

7.6. POLATILLC carries out both automated and non-automated processing of personal data (mixed processing).

7.8. The Operator has the right to transfer personal data to inquiry and investigation authorities or other authorized bodies under the grounds established by Russian law.

7.9. Disclosure or dissemination of personal data to third parties without the consent of the personal data subject is not permitted unless otherwise provided by federal law. Consent for processing personal data allowed by the personal data subject for public dissemination must be obtained separately from other consents of the personal data subject.

7.10. The Operator shall take the necessary legal, organizational, and technical measures to protect personal data from unlawful or accidental access, destruction, modification, blocking, distribution, and other unauthorized actions, including:

- Identifying threats to personal data security during processing;

- Adopting internal regulations and other documents governing personal data protection;
- Appointing persons responsible for personal data security within departments and information systems;
- Creating secure conditions for working with personal data;
- Keeping records of documents containing personal data;
- Managing information systems that process personal data;
- Storing personal data in a manner that prevents unauthorized access.

7.11. The Company stores personal data in a form that allows identification of the personal data subject for no longer than necessary to achieve the purposes of processing, unless a longer storage period is required by federal law or contract.

7.12. The processing of personal data in POLATI LLC is based on the following principles:

- Legality of purposes and processing methods;
- Compliance of processing purposes with those defined at the time of data collection;
- Compliance of the volume and nature of the processed personal data, methods of processing personal data with the purposes of processing personal data;
- Reliability of personal data, their sufficiency for the purposes of processing, inadmissibility of processing personal data that is excessive in relation to the purposes declared when collecting personal data;
- Inadmissibility of combining databases containing personal data created for incompatible purposes;
- Storing personal data in a form that allows the identification of the subject of personal data for no longer than is required for the purposes of their processing;
- Destruction upon achieving the purposes of processing personal data or in the event of loss of the need to achieve them.

7.13. Procedure for destruction of personal data by the Operator.

7.13.1. Conditions for the destruction of personal data by the Operator:

- achievement of the purpose of personal data processing or loss of the necessity to achieve this purpose – within 30 (thirty) days;
- reaching the maximum storage periods for documents containing personal data – within 30 (thirty) days;
- submission by the personal data subject (or their representative) of confirmation that the personal data were obtained unlawfully or are not necessary for the stated purpose of processing – within 3 (three) working days from the date such fact is identified;
- withdrawal by the personal data subject of consent to the processing of their personal data, if their retention for the purpose of processing is no longer required – within 30 (thirty) days.

7.13.2. Upon achievement of the purpose of personal data processing, as well as in the event of withdrawal by the personal data subject of consent to their processing, the personal data shall be subject to destruction if:

- otherwise is not provided for by an agreement to which the personal data subject is a party, beneficiary, or surety;
- the Operator is not entitled to carry out processing without the consent of the personal data subject on the grounds provided for by Federal Law No. 152-FZ or other federal laws;
- otherwise is not provided for by another agreement between the Operator and the personal data subject.

7.13.3. The personal data shall be destroyed by a commission established by an order of the General Director of POLATI LLC.

7.13.4. Methods for the destruction of personal data shall be established in the Operator's local regulatory acts.

7.14. When collecting personal data, including via the Internet, the Company ensures that personal data of Russian citizens is recorded, systematized, accumulated, stored, clarified (updated, modified), and retrieved using databases located in the territory of the Russian Federation, except in cases stipulated by the Personal Data Law.

8. ENSURING THE SECURITY OF PERSONAL DATA

8.1. The security of personal data during its processing in the Company is ensured in accordance with the legislation of the Russian Federation and the requirements of the authorized government body for the protection of personal data subjects' rights, the federal executive body authorized in the field of security, and the federal executive body authorized in the field of countering technical intelligence and providing technical protection of information.

8.2. The security of personal data in the Company is ensured by the implementation of agreed measures aimed at preventing (neutralizing) and eliminating threats to the security of personal data, minimizing possible damage, as well as measures to restore data and the operation of personal data information systems in the event of the implementation of threats.

8.3. The Company shall take the necessary organizational and technical measures to protect personal data from accidental or unauthorized access, destruction, modification, blocking of access and other unauthorized actions.
